All applications received, either proposed or non-proposed will be placed on the current waiting list. When vacancies arise applicants will be called to attend an informal interview. Following this, if your application is successful, membership is on a two-year probationary period; thereafter, members are invited to renew on an annual basis.

New members will be required to pay three full years' membership fees before any Senior discounts become available.

A key deposit will be added to the first year's membership fee. This will be returned (minus a small administration fee) should membership cease, subject to the return of the key.

Please check that all information requested above is complete and correct and return the completed application form, accompanied by a passport-sized photograph, angling history overview and proposer recommendation (if available) to:
